Honors in Their Playing.

The new Indianapolis team and a picked nine, made up of the best players in the Cincinnati Shamrocks and Indians, played a couple of good games at League Park yesterday, the visitors winning in the morning and the home team in the afternoon. The Indianapolis players having had little practice together, fell easy victims to the Cincinnatis in the forenoon game, the latter batting Moore freely, while the home team could do nothing with Burke. Score: Indianapolis......0 0 0 0 0 0 3 1 0 1-5 Cincinnati......2 2 1 2 0 0 3 1 *-11

The afternoon game drew over six hundred people to the park, and was close and exciting throughout. The playing of New-man at short and Schanb at third for the Wetterer covered short in very pretty style for the visitors, whose infield is strong throughout. Ryan's batting was a feature.

The home team took the lead, scoring twice in the second inning on Casey's base on balls, singles by Schaub and McKenna and a sacrifice. The Cincinnati men, however, came to the front in the third, and by hitting the ball out good and hard rolled up three runs. Ryan led off with a hard drive for two bases. Wetterer followed with a base on balls and McGiven with a single on which Ryan scored and Wetterer took third. McGiven stole second and Burke drove both men in with a two-bagger, but was left himself by the side being retired. They added another in the fourth, Webber getting a base on balls and scoring on singles by Indianapolis took the lead again in the sixth, Newman getting a life on Ryan's muff of Wetterer's throw, stealing second and going to third on Fagan's low throw.

Casey was given a base on balls, stole second, and both men scored on Schaub's line single to center. The latter went late and home on Donovan's single. The home team lost another opportunity to score in the eighth by bad coaching.

Schaub hit safe and went to second on a passed ball, but was caught at the plate

rying to score on Campbell's single to left.

hey added one in the ninth very cleverly

however. Myers was hit by a pitched ball, reached third on Newman's single to center, and stole home while Williams was handling the ball with his back to the plate. The visitors failed to get a man across the plate after the fourth inning. In their half of the ninth, with two out, McGiven hit safe to center, and Myers let Weihe's easy grounder get by him. Thingslooked a trifle shaky, but Burke hit in front of the plate, and was easily thrown out at first.

HONORS TO INDIANA'S DEAD

By Ali Accounts, Yesterday's Was the Most Successful Celebration Known.

The Day Characterized Everywhere by Perfect Weather, Enormone Crowds and Elaborate Ceremonies.

THROUGHOUT INDIANA.

Judge Baldwin, at Winamac, Talks Upon the American Idea of the Common Soldier. WINAMAC, May 30 .- The day was appropriately celebrated here, the oration being delivered by Judge D. B. Baldwin, of Logansport. Following is the substance of his address:

"The United States differs from all other nations in the world in honoring the individual soldier. Other nations build monuments to the army, the navy and victory, but the name of the common soldier never appears upon them. The old world idea of the private soldier was and still is that he is only 'food for powder.' Hence of the vast armies of Marlborough and Napoleon not a trace of those who fought in the rank and file remains. History gives us marshals, generals and epuletes in plenty, but no common soldier's name. Why? Because the old world has never risen to the idea of a plain people's government. England, nearest approach to this great concept, is a government of the middle classes. France also is doing noble work in this direction. But in neither of these great nations is the workingman as with us, a sovereign. Unfortunately, this sovereign does not as yet comprehend his power in its full scope and majesty. That will not be the case until the school-house and experience have wrought their perfect work. Meantime the phenomena of building monuments and carving upon them the names of the humblest private soldier, of consecrating his lowly grave by flowers, and of setting apart to his mem-ory one of the loveliest days of the year marks the unconscious growth—each year rising higher and higher—of the power of the people, and of the deep meaning of that nmortal sentence, 'a government of the people, by the people, and for the people.' $10,000 in a shaft, upon the base of which is carved the name of every man that ever served in the army from Cass county in the great rebellion. The most beautiful monument I ever saw-a shaft of pure white marble—in one of New York's loveliest villages, is honored with the names of O'Hara, O'Shaugnessy and others so humble that the surname has been hopelessly lost, and is supplied by a pathetic —. All this should fill us with joy and pride. It is a new thing under the sun, this common people's war for the common people's government; this common soldiers' Sabbath is the high-water mark of patriot ism. Our Southern brethren claim the honor of first instituting memorial day as well as of national cemeteries. They say that Mary Williams, of Columbus, Ga., is the mother of the idea, and that a rebel Legislature voted the first sum of money to gather up and decently inter the bones of the dead. I shall not dispute the claim, al-though I doubt it. If it be true, it only does them honor. This is a day sacred to charity, and in which sectionalism has no place. Gratitude casts out hate. No doubt there is a time to be stern and to demand guarantees, but this is not the 30th of May; but to-day, as Lincoln said at Gettysburg: 'It is for us, the living, rather to be here dedicated to the unfinished work which they who fought here so nobly advanced. It is for us to be here, dedicated to the great task remaining here before us, that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause to which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this Nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

At Crawfordsville. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, May 30.-Memorial day was fittingly observed here to-day, under the auspices of McPherson Post, No. 7 G. A. R. This morning the 149 graves of the dead soldiers were strewn with flowers and bedecked with flags. In the afternoon a procession was formed, consisting of the G. A. R. post, Co. I, State militia, U. R., K. of P., Sous of Veterans and citizens, which moved to Music Hall, where the exercises were held. After reading the orders by the adjutant, Rev. E. B. Thomson led in prayer. Miss Nellie Nicholson gave a recitation entitled, "Cover Them over with Flowers." The address was delivered by Rev. W. R. Jewel, editor of the Danville (Ill.) News. In his speech the soldiers were urged not to grow sour or bitter against the government because they have not been fully repaid for their service. Such service cannot be repaid in money. "Much has our good Nation done," said he, "more than any other ever did for its soldiers, and much more will it do. Be patient, be patriotic to the last breath. You have not fought in reat of spirit as was your service.

At Knightstown. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

KNIGHTSTOWN, May 30.-Never before was the observance of Decoration day more generally and profusely carried out in this city than it has been to-day. The day was born under the glowing rays of a bright, warm sun, whose first appearance in the eastern horizon found the city gaily decorated with the stars and stripes. The morning exercises consisted of the decorating of the graves in the numerous city cemeteries by the G. A. R. posts. At Glencove, the magnificent new burying grounds of the I. O. O. F. lodge of this city, impressive services, including a memorial address by Rev. C. G. Hudson, D. D., were conducted. At 1 o'clock the entire city was depopulated, her citizens, almost to a man. having gone to the S. and S. O. Home. Here an unusually delightful programme was carried out during the afternoon, inelnding an address by Gov. Alvin P. Hovey music by the institution juvenile band, and other interesting features. To-night the G. A. R. posts are indulging in a camp-fire at Beel's Opera-house.

At Greenfield. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

GREENFIELD, May 30 .- Decoration day was becomingly celebrated here. At 1 P. M. the procession marched from the G. A R. Hall to the Armory, as follows: Citizens' Cornet Bood, Greenfield Light Infantry, members of the G. A. R., Sons of Veterans, Woman's Relief Corps and citizens. At the Armory, after the usual services, an able and eloquent oration was delivered by Hon. Wm. R. Hough, after which the procession marched to the two cemeteries. where the graves of all soldiers were decorated and the proper ceremonies were gone through with. The city was decorated business generally suspended. Tonight at the Presbyterian Church a patriotic entertainment was given. There were a number of recitations, songs and instrumental pieces, which were of special interest to the old soldiers. Addresses were given by Capt. Henry Snow, Capt. Lee O. Harris and George W. Duncan. Altogether the entire day was given up to patriotism and the inculcation of principles that will make us a nobler and a grander nation.

At Cambridge City.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CAMBRIDGE CITY, May 30 .- Memorial day was observed here with appropriate ceremonies. Mr. F. T. Roots, of Connerville, was the orator of the day, and delivered an able and eloquent historical address. He traced the causes of the rebellion, from the legalization of slavery in the Constitution down through the acrimonious congression-al debates on the Missouri Compromise and Calboun's nullification, to the ordinances of secession and the firing upon Sumter. After commenting upon the magnitude of the war, and the bravery therein displayed, he pictured the present prosperity of the South, and predicted that the time was near at hand, if not already here, when not a man would be found, South or North, to regret the abolition of slavery.

day was more generally observed than usual. The exercises took place at Meharry Hall, the G. A. R. and other organizations marching there in a body. The De-Pauw Military Band furnished music for the occasion. At the hall a large audience assembled, comrade and ex-Mayor L. P. Chapin presiding. Rev. Dr. Parkhurst invoked the divine blessing. Brief but eloquent addresses were delivered by James T. Denny, Miss Josephine Donnohue and Mr. Robert Noble. The DePauw Quartet Mr. Robert Noble. The DePauw Quartet sang some patriotic airs. The ritualistic services of the G. A. R. were held at Forest Hill Cemetery, a committee visiting the old cemetery for the purpose of decorating its graves. There was a general suspension of business, and display of the national colors in honor of the patriotic dead.

At Evansville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. EVANSVILLE, May 30.—Evansville donned holiday attire and paid tribute to fallen heroes in the various cemeteries about this city. At Locust Hill, in the forenoon, Capt. R. S. Hornbrook delivered an excellent address. In the afternoon the local G. A. R. posts, militia, police and brass bands paraded the principal streets of the city, after which Oak Hill Cemetery was visited, and excellent exercises fol-lowed. General Riley, of Vincennes, was the orator of the day, Mrs. Schwageman, a vocalist of some note, sang the "Star-spangled Banner." The graves of soldiers were strewn with flowers. It was one of the most successful events of the kind ever held here.

At Noblesville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NOBLESVILLE, May 80.—Memorial day was observed with exercises of more than usual interest. Business of every kind was suspended, stores closed and buildings profusely decorated. The ceremonies at the cemeteries were participated in by the G. A. R., the W. R. C., the Sons of Veterans, the I. O. R. M., school children and citizens generally. Flowers were placed upon the graves of soldiers and on the monument at Crownland Cemetery. In the afternoon the Opera-house was packed to its utmost ca-pacity by old soldiers and their friends, where an eloquent and patriotic oration was delivered by Albert J. Beveridge, of Indianapolis.

At Seymour.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal SEYMOUR, May 30 .- There was a general observance of Decoration day throughout Jackson county. At Brownstown, at Vallonia and Crothersville appropriate ceremonies were performed, and many garlands were laid upon graves in the quiet country places among the hills. In this city the services were conducted by the Elisworth Post G. A. R., the citizens generally taking part. Business was suspended during the afternoon. The memorial address was delivered by Rev. Daniel Ryan, of Indianapolis, at the First Baptist Church.

At Greensburg.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. GREENSBURG, May 30 .- At 1 o'clock the G. A. R. post, Sons of Veterans, and fortytwo little girls and young misses, each representing a State of the Union, with crippled soldiers and the Woman's Relief Corps in carriages, wended their way to South Park Cemetery, where a wreath of flowers was laid on the grave of each deceased soldier. Returning, a very large audience met in the Rink Opera-house, and, after music and reports, Rev. J. W. Turner, of Madison, delivered an eloquent address.

At Shelbyville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SHELBYVILLE, May 30 .- Two thousand people attended the Decoration-day services, this afternoon, at the City Cemetery. The procession was the largest ever seen upon such occasions. The oration was delivered by the Rev. T. L. Hughes, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, who, in the course of his address paid a high tribute to Oliver P. Morton, the famous war Governor of Indiana. At night the Woman's Relief Corps held a memorial service in the opera-hall in honor of the unknown dead soldiers.

At Spiceland.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. SPICELAND, May 30 .- Decoration day was observed here to-day with Harmon Rayl Post, G. A. R., in charge, Rev. William I Peck making the address of the occasion, after which the large procession marched to the cemeteries and with appropriate services decorated the graves of soldiers buried therein. The graves of the soldiers buried at the cemeteries of Bethel. Shiloh, Dunreith, Greensboro, Ogden and Elm Grove, were also looked after by the post. The business houses and many of the residences were handsomely decorated for the Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TIPTON, May 30 .- Decoration day was appropriately observed in this city, to-day, by James Price Post, G. A. R., and other civic vain. You did a great service; try to be as | organizations. Maj. J. A. Parker delivered in eloquent and well-received address, followed by a poem by Cora Cagley and an oration by Master Lucius, the seven-yearold son of John T. Smith. More than 1,500 people assembled at the cemetery, where the Grand Army and Odd-fellows performed their memorial rites. It was the largest and most interesting decoration exercises ever witnessed in this city.

At Muncie.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, May 30.-Decoration day was duly celebrated here to-day in the usual patriotic manuer, with interesting speeches. The national colors were planted on the graves of the dead comrades, by Williams Post, G. A. R., assisted by the W. R. C. and S. of V. orders. Hundreds attended the exercises, and the weather, although warm, was all that could be desired. Every business house in the city was closed from 1 P. M. until 4, and the city was draped in the national colors.

At Marion.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MARION, May 30.-Memorial day was observed here to-day with imposing ceremonies. One of the most impressive features was the appearance in the procession of two hundred disabled veterans from the farion Soldiers' Home, under command of Gen. A. F. Devereux, governor of the Marion branch. An able oration was delivered by Capt. D. H. Chase, of Logansport, who paid his attention chiefly to the iniquities of rebel prison-pens.

At Lebanon.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LEBANON, May 30 .- All business was suspended here to-day, on account of decorating the graves of the Nation's dead defenders. Appropriate exercises were held in Crown's Opera-house. Captain John V. Hadley, of Danville, made the address, after which the G. A. R. and Sons of Veterans, together with every secret order in the city, headed by the band, marched to the grave-yard and scattered flowers upon the last resting places of the dead soldiers.

At Madison. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Madison, May 30.—The weather has been bright and beautiful all day, and the ceremonies attending Memorial day passed off without interruption. The G. A. R. and kindred societies, with many citizens, participated, and flowers were placed on the graves of some three hundred soldiers in the city cemeteries. Business has been generally suspended all day, and the city is decorated with the national colors. Col. George W. Paschal delivered the oration.

At Peru.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. PERU, May 30.-Decoration day was more

At Decatur.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DECATUR, May 30 .- Memorial day was observed here with increased interest. The crowd is estimated at 6,000, and the procession, which was made up of soldiers, secret societies, Sons of Veterans, local militia company and citizens, was at least one mile long. All things considered, this was the greatest observance ever given the day here. Rev. B. S. Hollopeter, of Nobles-ville, delivered the oration.

At Rushville.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. RUSHVILLE, May 30 .- Decoration day in Rushville was the occasion of a very large gathering of people. The address of the day was delivered by the Rev. D. R. Van Buskirk, of Indianapolis, and the decoration of graves was conducted by the G. A. R., W. R. C., P. O. S. of A., and State militia. The day was observed at three other points in the county—Cathage, Fairview and Flatrock.

At Terre Haute. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

TERRE HAUTE, May 30.—There were more persons in the parade to-day, and more in the cemetery than ever before, to observe the memorial exercises. The Rev. J. Bartlett and Captain W. T. Crawford, both of Sullivan, Ind., were the speakers. To-night one of the city churches is crowded to witness special exercises by the children and to hear ex-Secretary of the Navy Thompson's address.

At Union City.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. Union City, May 30.—Decoration day was observed here by the usual decorating services, under the auspices of Sedgwick Post, No. 38, G. A. R. THE DAY IN ILLINOIS.

Enormous Crowds at Mattoon—Flowers Scattered by Children. Special to the Indianapolis Journal

MATTOON, May 30,-A typical summer day brought out a very large assemblage to witness the Decoration-day ceremonies, which were conducted by Mattoon Post, G. A. R., and participated in by hundreds of school children, with flags, bonquets and decorations. After the G. A. R. ritual ceremony, the children almost obliterated the green carpet of the soldiers' graves with flowers. Judge Bennett was the orator of the occasion, delivering a most impressive speech. Rev. Geo. Parrish and others assisted in the speech-making and services, which were probably the most generally attended of any ever held in Mattoon.

At Paris.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Four inches of snow fell in the Red-river valley, Minnesota, Thursday. Much damage was done to trees and crops. The was a cloud-burst at Arcadia, Trempe leau county, Wisconsin, Thursday night. Two mill-dams and one mill were swept away. One person was drowned. Enoch Link, a blacksmith, was shot and killed yesterday by Frederick Sorter, at Quindaro, a suburb of Kansas City. Two years ago Link shot Sorter's cow, which had strayed upon the latter's premises. This caused a quarrel which continued until yesterday, with the result noted. Geo. A. Merriam and W. E. Jones, county commissioners of Edmunds county, South Dakota, are under arrest, charged with taking illegal fees. It is claimed that the commissioners made a good thing from the distribution of supplies for the sufferers by crop failure in Edmunds county.

Averill Costa, twenty-two years old, and Kate Thompson, a young woman, both re-siding in Brooklyn, N. Y., had a quarrel Thursday night. Costa formerly lived with the woman, and was jealous of her. During the melee he struck her over the head with an ax, causing a fracture of the skull. Costa was arrested; the girl will die.

Fred Miller, a stone-mason, living at No. 435 West Third street, Ciucinnati, was found Thursday night lying near the sup-per table, dead, with a knife wound in his heart. His wife and thirteen-year-old step-daughter, and John Pierce, said to be his wife's paramour, have been arrested on suspicion. The woman claims that she found him dead when she returned from a brief absence from the house, and that he held the knife in his own hand.

The President's Popularity. Cincinnati Commercial Gazette.

Some talk has been going around that the President has lost popularity with his old friends. There is not a word of truth in it. He has not, of course, been able to satisfy all the demands that have been made of him. No mortal man, respecting or not himself and the office he held, could have done so. But the President remains a strong man with his party and his old friends. He was received in Cleveland yesterday with wonderful demonstrations of honor, admiration and affection. It is a pity that his circumstances are such that made a brilliant one-handed stop of a line hit, effecting a double-play alone, on his placeant little charmed the public during the last Presidential canvass. They were undoubtedly the best speeches that were ever made in any political campaign in this country.
